

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Continuing Education in Rehabilitation Science

SCHOOL OF REHABILITATION SCIENCE
REHABSCIENCE.USASK.CA/CERS

Audiology Webinar Series

HEARING LOSS IN CHILDHOOD

- Target Audience: Teachers, EAs, ECEs
- Presenters: Lynne Brewster, Charlotte Douglas and Diane Edwards
- Date & Time: Thursday, October 21st from 12:00-1:00pm
- Cost: $25 (recorded version provided after event)

Content:

- Importance of early identification of hearing loss and continued followup for children at risk of later onset hearing loss
- Impact of hearing loss on developmental outcomes including speech-language, academic, psychosocial and vocational
- Impact of hearing loss on daily functioning including the classroom setting
- Improving functional communication outcomes for children with hearing loss- recommendations for the classroom, home and larger community
- Classroom management for children who sign
- The role of the team in management

